Study Title: Collaborative Research: Developing STEM self-efficacy and science identities through authentic astrophysics research in online and face-to-face environments (STEM-ID)

Contact Person: In the event you have any questions about this research, you should contact Dr. John Stewart at jcstewart1@mail.wvu.edu. For information regarding your rights as a research subject, to discuss problems, concerns, or suggestions related to the research, to obtain information or offer input about the research, contact the Office of Research Integrity & Compliance at (304) 293-7073.

Introduction: You have been asked to participate in this research study that has been explained to you by your teacher.

Purpose: This study seeks to understand the effect of the Pulsar Search Collaboratory (PSC) school club on students' science career decision making and how those effects change with time. This information will help improve the PSC experience. Results of general interest will be shared with the academic community.

Description of Procedure: By printing your name and signing the form on the next page, you consent to take a short survey about your career interests in science and allow the results to be used in this research project. You do not have to answer all the questions in survey if you do not want to.

Discomforts: There are no known risks associated with participating in this study. Alternatives: You do not have to participate in this study. Benefits: The knowledge gained from this study may eventually benefit others. Financial Considerations: There are no fees associated with or compensation for this research.

Confidentiality: We promise that anything we learn about you in this study will be kept as secret as possible.

Voluntary Participation: You do not have to do this. No one will be mad at you if you refuse to do this or if you decide to quit. You have been allowed to ask questions about the research, and all of your questions were answered.

I willingly agree to be in this research.
